National Day of Prayer Service, Thursday, May 4th

Elkton Presbyterian Church

209 East Main Street, Elkton

Noon to 1 p.m.

Re-Dedication of the Rev Duke Log House, Friday, May 5th

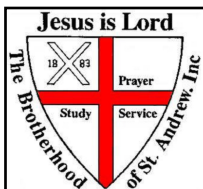

All are welcome to join the celebration on re opening from 5 to 8 PM.

135 East Main St. Elkton. Parking can be found behind the courthouse building across the street. The log cabin life on Bow Street in Elkton began around 1800 and has served multiple purposes: a residence, a barber shop, a store, etc. The cabin is historically significant for it was once the home of The Rev. William Duke, who took the title of the cabin and land in 1820. It was use for his residence and his own school. Rev. Duke was an Episcopal Priest and a school master.

Mother's Day, Sunday, May 14

The Brothers of St. Andrew will have a potted impatiens plant for all Mom's and ladies attending 8:00 AM or 10:30 AM service. Those attending one of these services can pick up plants at rear of the Church.

Coffee and light refreshments will be provided by the Brothers of St. Andrew in the Parish House at the conclusion of the 10:30 AM Service.

Trinity Spruce-Up, Saturday, May 20 from 8-10 AM Organized by The Brothers of St. Andrew

We are requesting for volunteers to sign work sheet in the Parish House for any desired tasks they could offer assistance. Any help would be greatly appreciated. Thanks in advance!

Invite Welcome Connect

Mary Parmer, Director of the IWC ministry published an interesting note in her website, maryparmer.com, that included a direct quote from our neighbor, Bishop Diocese of Delaware. The quote is shared here - The Right Rev. Kevin Brown, XI Bishop of Delaware, speaks to the vision, saying,

“ Invite, Welcome, Connect has sparked renewed zeal for our proclamation of God’s love and reminded us again that the church, at its humble best, really can be the living breathing body of Christ. Time and again, in this good work we are pointed back to Jesus.”

Amen

Sunday, May 28 the color for the day is Red.

If you can, please wear something red.
