TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The past month has brought us many blessings. In Bishops Shand's visit, he reminded us with his story of an individual of how a person once troubled can reclaim himself. As we reflect on our own lives let us humbly acknowledge the challenges we have faced and continue to face as individuals, as families, and as a Christian community and ask God to give us the strength to ever move forward.

The Diocesan Convention held at Hyatt in Cambridge was another highlight of the past month. The delegates and voting clergy, alternates and guests gathered at Hyatt for the 145th annual meeting of the Diocese of Easton for business, fellowship, learning and worship. The theme of this year's Convention was "Blessed to Be a Blessing." In his address the Bishop illustrated this by recounting a story told to him by a gentleman who had lost his wife. As his wife lay dying she assured their son that she would always be with him at important occasions during his life. Later during the child's confirmation, Bishop Shand asked the boy to get a Book of Common Prayer (BCP) from a nearby pew. Upon opening it he was astounded to see that the prayer book had been given to the church in the memory of the boy's deceased mother. This reaffirmed the mother's promise of being with him in key moments of his life. This account and many others like it show the importance of sharing our stories. Through sharing them we proclaim the Good News of our Lord to the world around us. We must count our blessings and share them by retelling them and by doing so, those with whom we share shall be encouraged, and strengthened.

In addition to the bishop's address, the convention key note speakers were Professor Lisa Kimball and The Rev. Kyle Oliver of Virginia Theological Seminary who led an exploration on "Hidden Blessing, Visible Blessing." This learning experience centered on the five marks of the church which were drawn from Maria Harris' book entitled, Fashion Me a People: Curriculum in the Church. These five marks woven into a worship liturgy were, Kerygma (Proclamation), Didache (Teaching), Koinonia (Community), Leiturgia(Worship) and Diakonia (Service). We will explore these in our future Adult Christian Education classes as we reconnect ourselves with faith formation practices. We will look at them anew as one of my friends says, "With an eagle's eye!" because we want the church to remain vibrant and grounded in faith.

We are emerged in the Lenten season. We continue our Lenten discipline. As a parish, we have provided you with opportunity for exploration. Tuesday's morning prayers, Wednesday's Eucharist and Bible Studies, and Wednesday evening meditations are some of the opportunities that will help us continue with the quest in deepening our spiritual wells. The culmination of this will be on Easter Sunday. I know each Sunday is a special Sunday, but Easter Sunday is an extra special one. This is a Sunday in which we are reminded our calling "To go and proclaim the Good News of our Risen Lord." We are called to act by sharing the divine life we have in Christ with our friends, neighbors and strangers. Let us celebrate the new life that Easter brings and led by the spirit let us open our hearts to the mystery of the Holy Spirit (John 21:18).

The Grass is Returning (Someday)

The good news is - the green grass will be back soon!

The bad news is - the green grass will be back soon!

Please thoughtfully consider if you would be willing to help with grass cutting this season. We have the equipment, we just need the donation of muscle and sweat. The weekly schedule has each volunteer helping once every four to five weeks during the growing season. We work in teams to a pre-established schedule, but you set the plan for your week with your partner. Consider being a parent and son/daughter team (of any age!) Or we will work you into the schedule with a veteran cutter. We will train on use of the equipment, so experience is not necessary.

Please let me know if you are willing and able to help this season.

Thank you.

"... and I by my works will show you my faith." James 2:18

The Food Pantry is in need of volunteers to help with the distribution of food. The pantry is open on Tuesday mornings from 10:00 to 11:30. We always have two people staffing the pantry. This is not a difficult job but one that is extremely important in our efforts to reach out to those in the community who are in need. To My Trinity Family,

Thank you all for the lovely cards and flowers. I deeply appreciate the kind thoughts and prayers that I have received. Words cannot describe how thankful I am.

I was privileged to attend the 145th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Easton held this past weekend in Cambridge MD. As you have undoubtedly heard from your convention delegates, Friday was a day of diocesan business, electing clergy and lay members to serve on diocesan committees, discussing and voting on a variety of resolutions and accepting the proposed diocesan budget for 2013. On Saturday, Dr. Lisa Kimball and the Rev. Kyle Oliver led us in a day of exploring Hidden Blessings and Visible Blessings in our lives as a community of faith. This was interwoven with our liturgy as we prayed and celebrated the Eucharist together.

The theme of this year's Convention, "Blessed to Be a Blessing" is very appropriate for the work we have been doing together in Cecil County this year. What a blessing it is to serve as your deacon and to work with you as we explore ways to share our resources and our blessings with the wider community!

Lisa and Kyle identified five marks or characteristics of an active faith community: proclamation, teaching, fellowship, worship and service. These are the very same ways we are sharing our resources and taking the Good News out into the community.

During this most holy season of Lent, we have many opportunities to come together and share the blessings that God has so generously bestowed upon us:

Teaching/learning opportunities:

1. Lenten film series. At 6 PM each Wed, come together for dinner and a film: Mar 6, "Joshua" at St. Paul's Centerville; Mar 13, "The Mission" at St. Stephen's Earleville; Mar 20, Motivational Theatre at St. Paul's Kent.
2. Wednesday evening Lenten program at Trinity Elkton
3. Exploring Spirituality during Lent, Sunday mornings at 10:15 at Augustine Parish

Worship opportunities:

1. Vespers: At St. Mary Anne's every Sunday during Lent at 5:30 PM
2. Morning Prayer: At St. Mary Anne's, Mon, Wed and Fri at 6:30 AM;
at Trinity Elkton Tues. at 9 AM.
3. Easter Vigil: St Mary Anne's March 30.

Fellowship opportunities:

1. North Elk Coffee House, Jane Rothfield and Allan Carr, March 16, 7:30 PM at St. Mary Anne's
2. Trip to the National Cathedral, April 6, sponsored by EfM group at St. Mary Anne's, Cost $65, seating is limited, contact Carol Weisel.
3. VTS Christian Rock Festival, April 13. Contact Janice Flood, Youth coordinator for Northern Convocation.

Service opportunities:

Watch for more information about service projects at Camp Wright and at Crisfield.

Proclamation opportunities:

Every day through our actions and words we proclaim the Gospel and show others what it means to be a Christian.

Many blessings for a holy Lent,
Darcy

A big "Thanks!" to everyone who contributed to the ERD in-gathering on the first Sunday of Lent. We raised $402 to help Episcopal Relief & Development eradicate poverty in the world. This is another small step in the Millennium Development Goal to use 0.7% of the world's wealth to eliminate the world's poverty. As the bishop explained on that Sunday, ERD helps victims all over the world, including in our own back yard, with Crisfield, MD communities soon to be recipients of aid in their struggle to recuperate from devastating Super Storm Sandy damage.

Please remember that you don't need to wait for ERD Sunday each year to help. Go to www.er-d.org anytime and make a contribution that matters. And grab a Hope Chest from the back of the church and put it to work in your home throughout the year to gather contributions towards next year's in-gathering. (Note: But during Lent, remember to bring in your Change for Change, as Trinity's youth continue gathering contributions to help achieve MDG goals of eradicating poverty and otherwise helping our less fortunate neighbors around the world.) Thank you again for your meaningful participation in a holy Lent.

Your friends in Christ,
 Rich and Wendy Gilbert
