Hope, Belief and New Life

In my recent sermons, the words hope, belief and new life have been featured many times. Among the three words, the word I have used the most is hope. In February during the ground hog festivity, though I am not a believer in what the ground hog predicts, I had hoped that he would say that the winter was about to end or would not last for very long, but as it turned out that was not to be. But, having been raised in equatorial Africa, I am not an expert about winter. It was just my wishful thinking.

The word hope in our modern usage does not imply confidence and certain expectations, but this is not the case in biblical usage. Hope in the Scripture means “a strong and confident expectation.” This “strong and confident expectation” affects what we value in life and how we live. The theme of our 143rd Convention of the Diocese of Easton was archeologist of hope. In her writing, The Rev. Canon Heather quoted the Marist brother Donald Bisson, a pioneer in Jungian-Christian dialogue, who said, “Hope does not mean a kind of wishful thinking.” Canon Heather said, “Hope is what carries us and sustain us for the journey.”

The Bible is full of stories of God’s mission to bring healing, hope and wholeness. In my first sermon in Lent this year, I said that for us to be true followers of Christ, preparation for our Christian journey is paramount. We cannot overcome the temptations we go through, unless we are fully prepared for this journey. The Bible says, for those who have a strong foundation and are deeply rooted in the Lord will find new strength. They will never grow weary nor faint. Isaiah 40:30.

Hope is built upon belief. Belief is the rock we stand upon. Without belief there can be no hope. We would wander blindly as if in a maze feeling our way without direction. Jesus applied mud made from spittle to the eyes of the man born blind, and he could see for the first time in his life. The Pharisees were shocked with disbelief and threw the blind man out of the temple. Jesus sought him out and asked him if he believed in the Son of man. The blind man said, “I believe,” and he worship Jesus. It was through belief that the blind man had new life, a new beginning.

As spring brings new life, so does Easter Sunday. If we truly believe in the Son of Man, the one who holds the words of eternal life, and if we are committed to this truth, like the Samaritan woman in John 4, the risen Christ will offer us, a drink of the living water, the water of eternal life so that in us will come forth springs gushing up to eternal life. In the risen Lord we will experience God’s presence, which will bring inner peace and joy to our hearts.

Grass Cutting
 Beautiful green grass will return before we know it. (I hope!)
 And we could use your help keeping it under control. Please consider if you could join the dedicated few for about once a month to cut and trim God's lawn. No experience is needed. If you are able bodied, 18 or over, and somewhat mechanically inclined I will show you the ropes, and pair you with a seasoned Trinity grass pro for the "season". Family teams are also welcome. Please let me know if you can join our behind the scenes team .
